

Alone in the dark
Demons all around me
I can hear them whisper
Feel their touch on my skin
Voices so familiar
Yet I cannot place them
Reaching for my soul
I fight not to let them in
What do they want?
Why is it me they're after?
What did I do to deserve this pain?
The voices get louder
The whispers have become screams
I can't breathe
I can't feel
I can't resist their deceiving cries
My spirit has weakened
I can't fight them any longer
Leading me astray
My innocence taken away
Demons all around me
Alone in the dark
